The Christmas dance at Wooster's hall last evening, was the success of the season. A large crowd was in attendance, and all report having had a very enjoyable time.

A train of fifteen cars of stock cattle from Texas passed through here Saturday night enroute to Winslow, where they were unloaded and turned loose on the ranges near there.

We have been informed that Cupid has been shooting another quiver of arrows in this neck of the woods. We are not certain who the injured parties are, but their announcements will appear later.

well, Smith and Shumway.

Silas Fish arrived here Monday from the Samoan Island where he has spent the past four years in the interests of the Latter Day Saints church, after spending a day here visiting with his father, Joseph Fish, he left for his home in Snowflake.

Numerous cattle owners in the southern part of the Territory who shipped their stock out during the late drouth are now shipping their cattle back the luxuriant growth of feed on their ranges fully justifying the expense of returning the cattle.

fine apples also a variety of dried fruits. Mr. Frost says "the San Juan county is certainly coming to the front, with a possibility of a rail road building through that section in the near future." He will spend a few weeks here renewing old acquaintances before returning to Fruitland.

A. H. McClure,

Sec'y T. T. A.

Death of Mrs. Boyer

After a long period of illness Mrs. Mary Boyer passed away away at eight o'clock Sunday morning. The deceased leaves a husband, A. M. Boyer, and three daughters, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs.
E. H. Bargeman and Miss Maggie Jervis.

That Mrs. Boyer's friends were numbered by her acquaintances, was evidenced by the very large attendance at the funeral service, which was held at the Boyer residence. The house was crowded in every part, many people being compelled to remain outside.
The service was one of the most touching that we ever witnessed; and we have no doubt that this is equally true of the many who shed tears of grief at that solemn service.

Rev. Father Connelly offered prayer and spoke some very feeling words of admonition to those assembled. After the last look had been taken at Mrs. Boyer by her many friends, the beautiful black coffin, covered with wreaths of the choicest flowers, was conveyed to the hearse. The funeral cortege was a large and representative one, numerous conveyances taking part. At the grave side the final words of prayer were pronounced by Rev. Connelly, and the coffin was lowered to its last resting place.

The citizens of Holbrook extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends for the expressions of sympathy shown us in the loss of our beloved mother. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bargeman.

Mrs. J. L. Clark.

Miss Maggie Jervis.
